COVID-19 Ordinance on International Passenger Transport Measures

Since 6 July 2020, travellers arriving in Switzerland from certain areas are required to go into quarantine for a period of 10 days.

This measure is based on the COVID-19 Ordinance on International Passenger Transport Measures and applies to persons entering Switzerland from countries or areas with an increased risk of infection with the coronavirus.

You must notify the competent cantonal authority within two days of your arrival in Switzerland and follow the instructions given to you by the authorities. Costs incurred during quarantine must be borne by the traveller.

You will find the list of countries or areas with an increased risk of infection with the coronavirus, along with details of the cantonal agencies and exceptions from the quarantine requirements, here:

www.bag.admin.ch/entry

Anyone who evades quarantine, or who fails to comply with the duty to notify the authorities, is committing an offence under the Epidemics Act and is liable to a fine of up to CHF 10,000.

Please refer to the FOPH website www.bag.admin.ch/new-coronavirus for further information or contact the Infoline.
